DONATION IN LIEU OF CHRISTMAS CARDS

The Southern Health and Social Services Council, the local health watchdog, made a decision not to send Christmas cards in 2004 but rather to give a donation to the Southern Area Hospice Service, Newry.

Mrs Lynne Cairns, Chairman presented Anne Marie Connolly, the Hospice Co-ordinator in the Craigavon/Banbridge area, with a cheque for £300.

Mrs Cairns said, "We have much pleasure in presenting the Hospice with the donation which will help to support the range of care services provided by the Hospice".

Notes to Editors:

- The Southern Health and Social Services Council is one of 4 Health and Social Services Councils set up in 1991 to represent the views of patients and users of the health and social services. The Council has a total of 24 members, 40% of whom are nominated by District Councils in the Southern Area. The remainder are appointed by the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety – 30% voluntary/community representatives and 30% are nominees with an interest in health and social care.
- Health and Social Services Councils have a right to be consulted by Health and Social Services Boards about and plans for development of services, or where significant changes are being considered. Councils play an important part in representing the views of consumers of services to the decision makers, and provide advice and support to patients and service users in relation to complaints procedures.
